About Me

Passionate film production major graduated from Bridgewater State University. Founded a successful content creation business in high school, specializing in promotional videos, music videos, and wedding videos. Gained valuable experience through internships at 47 Brand and as the Director of Videography at Camp Laurel. Skilled in camera operation, editing, and storytelling, with a proven ability to create compelling visual content. Eager to apply my diverse background and technical skills to contribute to impactful projects in the film industry.
